The Smog of the Sea

This documentary follows a group of marine and citizen scientists with the goal to take a deeper look into the garbage patch in the remote Sargasso Sea. What they find is surprising and a true wake-up call to avoid single use plastics. 30 min.

Monday, March 8

A Sense of Wonder

A Sense of Wonder follows actress Kaiulani Lee, who embodies environmental pioneer Rachel Carson in the final year of her life. The film depicts Carson reminiscing about her experiences with the press, government, and chemical industry after her release of Silent Spring. 54 min.

Wednesday, February 17

Bird of Prey

The rarest eagle on earth, the Great Philippine Eagle, is vanishing. Follow wildlife cinematographer, Neil Rettig, on his journey to find and film this magnificent and critically endangered eagle species. Meet the determined group of people working to keep this bird from vanishing forever. 94 min.

Monday, April 12

Just Eat It

This film follows Jen and Grant as they dig into the issue of food waste in the United States, a country where one in ten people don't have consistent access to food. They challenge themselves in a unique way while taking a closer look into food waste, starting at farms and ending up in their own fridge. 75 min.
